

Oxford County Advertiser.

The best advertising medium need not necessarily be the largest circulation. The persons who will patronize you are the ones that you want to reach.

C. C. Heath, four and groceries, has failed.

A strange and exciting Indian story by J. K. Chase to commence in the Advertiser next week.

Black Nathan, A. E. Russell, Blackfield, won the first money in the 2-3 class at Kennebec, and Scrip won by J. Post, Corbiss, second. Best time, 2:32 1/2.

The August Trot.

The following are the races and purses at the fifth annual meeting of the Oxford County Trotting Horse Breeders' Association on the Fair Grounds between Norway and South Paris, Tuesday, Wednesday, Aug. 13 and 14—

Tuesday—10:00 a. m., gent's driving class, purse, $25.00.
10:30 a. m., two-year-old colt stakes, 12 entries.
1 p. m., 2:30 class, purse, $100; 2:45 class, purse, $200; year-old colt stakes (one-half mile heats) best two in three, 14 entries.
Wednesday—10:00 a. m., three-year-old colt stakes, 2 entries.
1:00 p. m., 2:45 class, purse, $100; 2:45 class, purse, $200; 2:55 class (padding) purse, $50.
The new covered grand stand 300 feet long has been completed and will be used for the first time. New stalls have been built. The track is in excellent condition.

There will be an exhibition of Oxford County horses and colts each day.

The trotting open to all. Entrance fee, 5 per cent. of purse and must accompany non-paying spectators. Purse divided, 50, 25, 15 and 10 per cent. Any horse distancing the field, or any other, will receive said money only. Entries to close August 14, 1891, and to be made with the secretary.

Hay and straw will be furnished.

Members of the Association admitted free; general admission 25 cents.

Norway Municipal Court.

August Term, 1891.
C. F. WHITMAN, JUDGE.
No. 47. S. Bennett vs. E. C. Barrows. Contested by agreement.
No. 48. C. F. Tibbets vs. William E. E. Russell. Contested by agreement.

No. 49. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 50. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 51. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 52. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 53. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 54. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 55. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 56. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 57. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 58. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 59. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.
No. 60. E. C. Russell vs. David E. White. Contested by agreement.

DEPUTY SHERIFF.

Deputy Sheriff William L. Blood of South Paris, is taking the lead in liquor seizures. Saturday some liquor seized by him were delivered to the town of Paris. On Thursday he made a trip in the line of railroad and took a quantity of liquor. Found which he hid. He went again Friday and learned that two packages had passed him. One of these was taken by deputy James L. Tucker at West Paris and libeled.

WILLIAM G. MITCHELL.

William G. Mitchell of Watford, was arrested last week on complaint of T. L. Webb for cheating by false pretenses. The matter was arranged between the parties and on payment of costs, Mitchell was discharged.

EDGAR H. HUTCHINS.

Edgar H. Hutchins of Paris, was arrested by deputy Chandler Garland Saturday for intoxication. He pleaded guilty and on promise of future good behavior he was let off with a fine of two dollars and costs taxed at seven dollars and ten cents.

MEMORIAL.

Port. Sargent and wife returned from Soudier Island, Saturday.

Nellie M. Glover and her mother have gone to Topsham to visit relatives.

Among the latest arrivals are Mrs. Nellie Simpson, with her two children, from Chelsea, Mass.

Henry Stearns and Vane Bearce, with their wives, have spent a week at Old Orchard.

E. M. Glover is making improvements on his stable.

Her. Mr. Andrews of Mechanic Falls, supplied the pulpit last Sunday.

Cyrus Packard, esq., State Land Agent, from Blanchard, is visiting relatives in this place.

NORTH WATERFORD.

Allice Woodbury, who has been passing the winter with friends at Boston, has returned home.

The reading club met at Mrs. Gorham Knight's, Thursday afternoon. "Donovan" is being read, also selected.

Charles Crockett from Norway, was here Sunday, with H. P. E. Elliott's trotter.

Mrs. Dr. Coolidge, with babe, has gone to visit relatives at Wald and Concord.

The Sunday school intend having their picnic at Porcupine Pond, Aug. 13th, if pleasant; if not the first day.

LOCKE'S MILLS.

I notified three handsome hound pups at Mr. Adams stable.

A. G. Tinkham and wife have returned home to Mechanic Falls. They were 50 calls on their old acquaintances in this vicinity.

John Bryant from Portland is visiting her grandmother Mrs. Irene Hobbs and Abba Tinkham.

"The Red Serpent of the Abenaki, or Starry Eyes, the Forest Queen," the title of the serial by J. K. Chase, Oxford, that will be commenced in next week's Advertiser. Subscribe now as you will surely want to read this story.

W. H. Gerry has returned from Norway, where he has been haying.

Mr. Hopkins from Milton, P. T., has been haying for A. W. Bryant.

Mrs. Lydia Stevens has two ladies visiting here from Lewiston.

John E. Farwell had a light shock last week.

Mr. John F. Dearborn was very sick last Saturday and Sunday, but is better.

A. Fairbank was home from Gorham over Sunday. He has a position in a store.

Charles Crockett from Lynn, Mass., is visiting at D. M. Goss's.

Mrs. James H. Estes who has been in failing health for a number of months died quite suddenly of heart failure July 29th. She was buried Saturday from the church. Rev. Seth Benson officiated.

The down epidemic Saturday afternoon, struck a valuable bull calf belonging to E. C. Trask Junior, his son Billy he had to be killed.

Frank and Charles Estes of Lynn, Mass., came home from vacation on Sunday to the home of Mrs. Geo. G. Heath of their mother. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Heath, who have been in the city, returned home on Sunday.

E. C. Hobbs, wife, and daughter of Gorham, N. H., spent Sunday at L. C. Trask's. Before returning home they will visit Lewiston, Auburn, and Rock Island.

Rev. Mr. Pennes preached an able and interesting sermon at St. Paul's on Sunday to the G. R. men.

Mrs. Archie Green is at Bryant's Pond visiting her sister, Mrs. Edw. Farrington.

Mr. Abraham Wood, arrives: A. G. Tinkham and wife, Mechanic Falls, V. T. Trask, Norway, H. Day, F. O. Briggs, Portland, F. R. Carpenter, Stoneman, C. Mayo, Lewiston, Ed. G. Gay, Boston, G. H. Clifford, So. Paris, D. E. Grant, Locke's Mills, Levi Seely, Gorham, N. H., Dr. W. D. South, Paris, James Crockett and wife, Norway, V. T. Parker, Pawtucket, R. I., C. E. Libbe, Lisbon.

The following guests arrived at Dudley Cottage on Monday, Mrs. J. R. Roche, and Mr. Harrington of Boston. If the weather permits the opening ball of the season will take place at Dudley Springboard on next Saturday evening the 8th inst.

NORTH WATERFORD.

V. D. Bicknell and wife went to S. G. Barrett's at Summit Hill, Sunday.

John Crosey is failing.

Clinton Mason at home and has finished work at Watford.

Mrs. Emery has company from Boston.

Isabelle Swallow is drawing brushes for Whittington Bros.

Mr. Carey and Mr. Fuller of Salem, Mass., are staying at Capt. Winchester, North Pond or Sylvan Lake.

NORTH NEWRY.

H. F. Thurston has recently bought of Irving Stearns a nice colt, which he will sell at a low price.

Mrs. Julia Pusey of Lewiston is in town looking after the interests of her farm.

Popular Hotel is having the largest run of business this season, it has had for many years. They have 30 boarders here a large number of transient.

Prof. W. W. Kilgore is soon to leave for his western home and is to be accompanied by his mother who is to make him a visit of a year.

Orin Foss has taken the grass to cut on the Bonnet farm.

Grass farmers report the hay crop below an average in this section.

G. Mason Bartlett has a nice three-year-old colt for which he has recently received $325, perhaps in honor to his sister's funeral. He is a son of Albion.

Mr. Mrs. George of Rochester, N. Y., who has been visiting for a few weeks at Popular Hotel in Newry is now visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Powers, formerly of the Mr. Abram Hotel, Locke's Mills, and at Poplar Hill.

Several reports being present at the opening of an elegant night blooming cereus, at the house of C. S. Litchell, a few evenings ago. The house was completely filled with his elegant perfume.

CLIFTON.

The village school has closed, teacher, Jennie Rich.

Blueberries plenty at about 7 cts. per quart.

Mr. J. W. Bryant visited at the home of Mrs. S. Hodgman, last week.

A. Stone and daughter also E. H. Green and family are visiting at D. L. Austin's.

A picnic party was recently enjoyed at Josiah Heath's, the occasion being the birthday party of his grandchild, Joseph Heath's infant child died last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bennett expect to go to Jefferson soon.

E. C. Whitman is in Glenwood over Sunday and returned on Monday.

E. E. Kimball has gone to Potsdam, N. Y., to see his mother, Jennie Rich, and returned on his absence.

Amos Robertson was at Josiah Heath's Sunday.

Dr. Walker has a very fine blueberry pasture. Mrs. Walker has carried a quantity of blueberries to West Paris, Saturday all of his blueberry pickers were invited into the pasture to pick, filling pails with great blue berries. Very nice ones. They were called to dinner, very nice dinner was awaiting them which was enjoyed by all, and which was very pleasant conversation, when all returned to the pasture where they picked and chatted until night, having spent the day very pleasantly and profitably. They then returned to their homes with their berries, and the doctor and his family.

HARRISON.

The Sunday concert at Lake Sebago was well patronized from this place. Steamer Hathorne made a trip to convey the public. Chandler's full hand in attendance. The general public was well satisfied.

George Harmon from North Windham is visiting at E. F. Allen's.

S. W. Winslow of Portland and Mrs. G. Dennison of Mass., made a wagon one day last week at Mr. Nathan's, and then to the pond, where they picked raspberries in the late than the other, they were put in a five dollar bill, and as they chose no one to hold the berries, they were placed on a dress and coat waist. The gentlemen and Mrs. Dennison took the lead, and also the five dollar bill.

We are told that Henry Haskell, our village milkman has sold his nice horse for a large sum.

On Friday last week our attention was called by post-master, W. Bailey, to a handkerchief sent near his residence, measuring in length three feet two inches, and two feet five inches. It was quite curious.

Will Heath sold his cow to Mr. Jordan and son.

Mrs. Ernest Kneeland from Lynn, and Julia Kneeland from Cambridge, Mass., are visiting at her father's, Seth Kneeland's.

We notice in the Portland Herald of Aug. 4, that Mrs. Perry, wife of Capt. Elizabeth, mother of the Arctic explorer, and Capt. Perry, has received a letter from him, written last at the expedition entered the ice in Indian Bay. This is the first letter he has written since he left the party. The party were all well.

Samuel Whitney has commenced the manufacture of machinery at the factory, to make ready for the manufacturing of some kind of wood work. We will briefly mention a portion of a portion of winter's work. Spool bars, 60,000; iron, 300,000; 300 cords of bark; 1,000 cords of wood and stove bolts.

Mr. Samuel Tibbets, aged 96 years has played and done the work in two years. He is a very old man, and his conversation is free and plain but he is a very little man, and with a small, on account of rheumatism but without much difficulty. He can be seen almost every day to his grocery in the store on his arm, going to the store. His daughter, a widow lady keeps house for him.

Mrs. J. S. Winslow's father, father, Capt. Clara W. Pembroke is residing at Nathan Daves.

Mrs. Beckwith of Somerville has joined her daughters at Newry Road.

Nellie Twitchell one of our dressmakers is in feeble health.

Mrs. Lydia Stevens has been visiting 100 quarts of raspberries in two weeks. The repairs on Hotel Daves will be finished this week.

We notice many strangers in our village.

The Oxford Division, Sons of Temperance requested to our invitation on Monday evening, to an entertainment and supper, to the number of fifty-two. Let the good work go on.

Walter Bartlett and sister Miss Bartlett of Holyoke, Mass., are visiting at Mrs. J. W. Allen's.

Mrs. John Allen is improving.

Annie Saunders of the firm, Smith & Saunders, Sebago Lake has been visiting in our village.

WEST WATERFORD.

Mr. Bradbury and wife of Mass., are at their father's, Dr. C. B. Bradbury.

Mrs. Charles Bradbury and family are at her brother's, James Richards.

C. B. Harlow sold two heifers and a cow to Mr. R. F. Brown last week.

C. A. Warren's mare has a colt, called Flossie Hatlow is at work for Carroll King.

Charles Fossie last at Mr. Smith's.

Mr. Jesse of Paris, was at S. B. Stearns' last Sunday.

Mr. T. Damon is cutting the hay on the H. H. Hall farm.

Sadie R. Austin had a croquet party last Saturday p. m.

NORTH NEWRY.

Mrs. Carrie Caldwell, from Gorham, N. H., is visiting at R. Foy's.

Mrs. Frank Cox still remains very sick.

A party of men from this region went to "cup country" fishing last week.

Dr. Judkins, while shoeing a horse for Fred Noble, got his leg injured quite severely.

Mrs. Abbie Bosworth is taking care of Mrs. Robert Frost, who still remains ill.

Minnie Cole fell last week and injured her back.

Mr. Tremaine gave away to a young person living in Seven, a soapman's bill for a young person living in Seven.

WOLF RUMFORD.

Charles Barker and wife, Concord, N. H., are visiting friends in this neighborhood.

Lynum Abbott and family of Lewiston, are at the Calvin Howe home.

An entertainment for the benefit of the Portland Point Universalist church is to be held at the home of a lady in this neighborhood, to consist of a lawn party with refreshments, and the opera, "Seven Old Women," which is a very popular condition. We are glad to hear of it.

Under and Rev. Mr. Pennes has accepted a call to preach at Marblehead, at Cambridge during the winter.

Receipts of Congregational lawn party over thirty dollars.

Will Abbott and sister, of Byron, are at Woodbine Cottage.

Ed Elliott has returned to Mass.

The young people of Mass. San Francisco, Cal., have been visiting at Capt. Hayes's.

Mr. Hilman Abbott has so far recovered as to be able to attend church.

Will Abbott has disposed of a number of his western horses.

I think that Mr. Lodge at Hanover will show us the "Foggy Lodge" of the County.

Lucretia Howe is at Freeport.

A Young People's Society, Christian Endeavor is to be organized at Rumford Thursday evening, Aug. 6th.

Rev. Mr. Pennes will preach to the young men Sunday, Aug. 7th.

Two excellent sermons were delivered before the Colby P. G. A. last Sunday at home in Sumner.

The Red Serpent of the Abenaki. Next paper. Sample copy free.

DENMARK.

Mrs. A. B. B. and daughter and Mr. B. Smith's.

Belie Smith has taken to the beach for a few days.

Blueberries are quite plenty and are selling for four cents per quart.

Dr. J. W. Bryant is visiting at the home of Mrs. S. Hodgman, last week.

A. Stone and daughter also E. H. Green and family are visiting at D. L. Austin's.

A picnic party was recently enjoyed at Josiah Heath's, the occasion being the birthday party of his grandchild, Joseph Heath's infant child died last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bennett expect to go to Jefferson soon.

E. C. Whitman is in Glenwood over Sunday and returned on Monday.

E. E. Kimball has gone to Potsdam, N. Y., to see his mother, Jennie Rich, and returned on his absence.

Amos Robertson was at Josiah Heath's Sunday.

Dr. Walker has a very fine blueberry pasture. Mrs. Walker has carried a quantity of blueberries to West Paris, Saturday all of his blueberry pickers were invited into the pasture to pick, filling pails with great blue berries. Very nice ones. They were called to dinner, very nice dinner was awaiting them which was enjoyed by all, and which was very pleasant conversation, when all returned to the pasture where they picked and chatted until night, having spent the day very pleasantly and profitably. They then returned to their homes with their berries, and the doctor and his family.

HARRISON.

The Sunday concert at Lake Sebago was well patronized from this place. Steamer Hathorne made a trip to convey the public. Chandler's full hand in attendance. The general public was well satisfied.

George Harmon from North Windham is visiting at E. F. Allen's.

S. W. Winslow of Portland and Mrs. G. Dennison of Mass., made a wagon one day last week at Mr. Nathan's, and then to the pond, where they picked raspberries in the late than the other, they were put in a five dollar bill, and as they chose no one to hold the berries, they were placed on a dress and coat waist. The gentlemen and Mrs. Dennison took the lead, and also the five dollar bill.

We are told that Henry Haskell, our village milkman has sold his nice horse for a large sum.

On Friday last week our attention was called by post-master, W. Bailey, to a handkerchief sent near his residence, measuring in length three feet two inches, and two feet five inches. It was quite curious.

Will Heath sold his cow to Mr. Jordan and son.

Mrs. Ernest Kneeland from Lynn, and Julia Kneeland from Cambridge, Mass., are visiting at her father's, Seth Kneeland's.

We notice in the Portland Herald of Aug. 4, that Mrs. Perry, wife of Capt. Elizabeth, mother of the Arctic explorer, and Capt. Perry, has received a letter from him, written last at the expedition entered the ice in Indian Bay. This is the first letter he has written since he left the party. The party were all well.

Samuel Whitney has commenced the manufacture of machinery at the factory, to make ready for the manufacturing of some kind of wood work. We will briefly mention a portion of a portion of winter's work. Spool bars, 60,000; iron, 300,000; 300 cords of bark; 1,000 cords of wood and stove bolts.

Mr. Samuel Tibbets, aged 96 years has played and done the work in two years. He is a very old man, and his conversation is free and plain but he is a very little man, and with a small, on account of rheumatism but without much difficulty. He can be seen almost every day to his grocery in the store on his arm, going to the store. His daughter, a widow lady keeps house for him.

Mrs. J. S. Winslow's father, father, Capt. Clara W. Pembroke is residing at Nathan Daves.

Mrs. Beckwith of Somerville has joined her daughters at Newry Road.

Nellie Twitchell one of our dressmakers is in feeble health.

Mrs. Lydia Stevens has been visiting 100 quarts of raspberries in two weeks. The repairs on Hotel Daves will be finished this week.

We notice many strangers in our village.

The Oxford Division, Sons of Temperance requested to our invitation on Monday evening, to an entertainment and supper, to the number of fifty-two. Let the good work go on.

Walter Bartlett and sister Miss Bartlett of Holyoke, Mass., are visiting at Mrs. J. W. Allen's.

Mrs. John Allen is improving.

Annie Saunders of the firm, Smith & Saunders, Sebago Lake has been visiting in our village.

WEST WATERFORD.

Mr. Bradbury and wife of Mass., are at their father's, Dr. C. B. Bradbury.

Mrs. Charles Bradbury and family are at her brother's, James Richards.

C. B. Harlow sold two heifers and a cow to Mr. R. F. Brown last week.

C. A. Warren's mare has a colt, called Flossie Hatlow is at work for Carroll King.

Charles Fossie last at Mr. Smith's.

Mr. Jesse of Paris, was at S. B. Stearns' last Sunday.

Mr. T. Damon is cutting the hay on the H. H. Hall farm.

Sadie R. Austin had a croquet party last Saturday p. m.

NORTH NEWRY.

Mrs. Carrie Caldwell, from Gorham, N. H., is visiting at R. Foy's.

Mrs. Frank Cox still remains very sick.

A party of men from this region went to "cup country" fishing last week.

Dr. Judkins, while shoeing a horse for Fred Noble, got his leg injured quite severely.

Mrs. Abbie Bosworth is taking care of Mrs. Robert Frost, who still remains ill.

Minnie Cole fell last week and injured her back.

Mr. Tremaine gave away to a young person living in Seven, a soapman's bill for a young person living in Seven.

RYAN'S POND.

L. N. Cummings and family have returned to Boston.

Fred L. Farwell of the Advertiser, was in town on business Wednesday.